Country house M163 Mazo

Beautiful, very well-maintained Canarian-style country house with a large avocado grove, situated in a fantastic location, with views of the three neighboring islands, Tenerife, La Gomera and El Hierro. Located in the municipality of Villa de Mazo, this approximately 15,500 m² property houses a very well-maintained Canarian-style country house with unobstructed views of the sea and the neighboring islands of Tenerife, La Gomera, and El Hierro. At an altitude of approximately 250 meters, surrounded by nature and in a peaceful environment, this property offers a very interesting combination of rural life, agricultural production, and tourism potential. The main house, with a built area of approximately 260 m², is spread over three levels. The ground floor comprises a bedroom and an office that can also be used as a bedroom. The first floor offers a glazed veranda, a kitchen-dining room, a living room, two bedrooms, two bathrooms, a guest toilet, a dressing room, a pantry with laundry room, and a storage room. The upper floor offers access via a hall to a TV room and an additional bedroom. The finca, currently planted with avocado trees, is entirely terraced with high-quality soil, making it an ideal location for sustainable agricultural projects. It also has a 637 m³ cistern, a water basin,
